CORAM : F.I. REBELLO & R.S. MOHITE, JJ.
DATED : 7TH DECEMBER,2007.

PC :

1. Rule.

2. Heard forthwith.

3. It is not necessary to set out the facts in detail. These petitions are in respect of goods covered under the DEPB Scheme. DEPB licences have been issued under the Scheme. The petitioners had submitted the same for verification in May/June, 2006. The grievance of the petitioner is that till date the customs authorities who are supposed to verify the valid DEPB Scrips have not done so far and therefore, these petitions.

4. On behalf of the respondents the learned A.S.G. submits that the matter was delayed on account of certain information which they had to receive from the petitioners and non co-operation of the part of the petitioners.

5. We do not propose to go into the controversy. Suffice it to say that the respondent No.2 while carrying out the process of verification will have to consider the judgment of this court in the case of Pradip Polyfils Pvt. Ltd. Vs. Union of India reported in 2004(1) LCXO 281. and the provisions of the Act along with rules.

6. On behalf of the respondent No.2, the learned counsel states that the process of verification will be completed and necessary order will be passed within two weeks from today. Statement is accepted. Accordingly, the respondent No.2 is directed to complete the process of verification within two weeks from today.

7. In the light of above, Rule made absolute accordingly.
